A Day at Lancaster

Many memories come to mind when we look through the pages of the 1966 REFLECTOR. We remember the Monday morning lunch ticket lines, the crowded halls, friendships made and, of course, the classes we attended each day. In the following pages we have attempted to re-capture a day at Lancaster.

Blast Off!!

But I did what you said!

Really, I learned how to dress in the 1st grade

Here's $5, destroy that camera

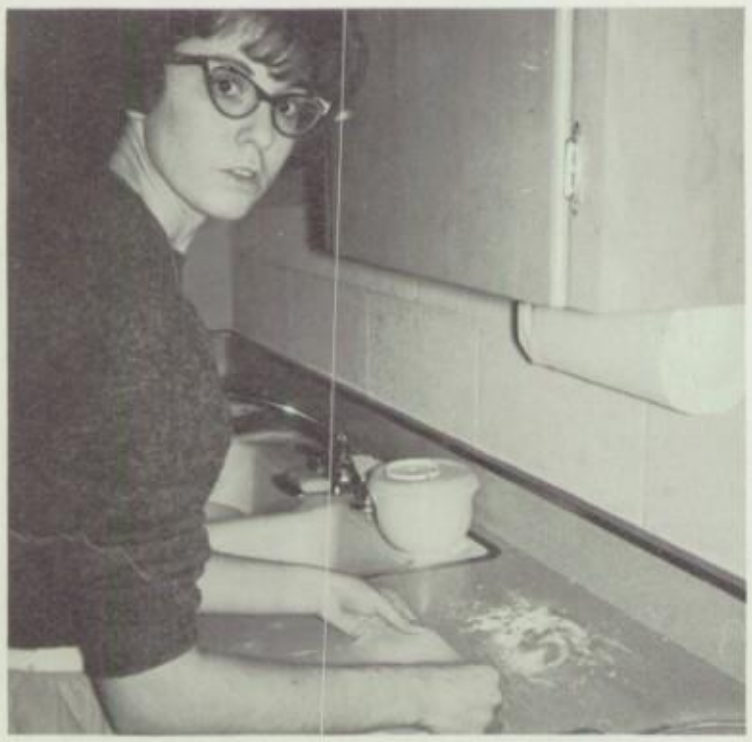
Concentration Camp

No matter what shape...

Get lost

Saw, hammer, needle, thread

That darn needle never does what I want it to



Help, was I supposed to add flour?

Boy, am I glad I've got bowed legs

Lick 'em! Stick 'em!

Rich, do you have a problem?

Our future cooks???

I said pass the ketchup

L. H. S. Used Car Lot

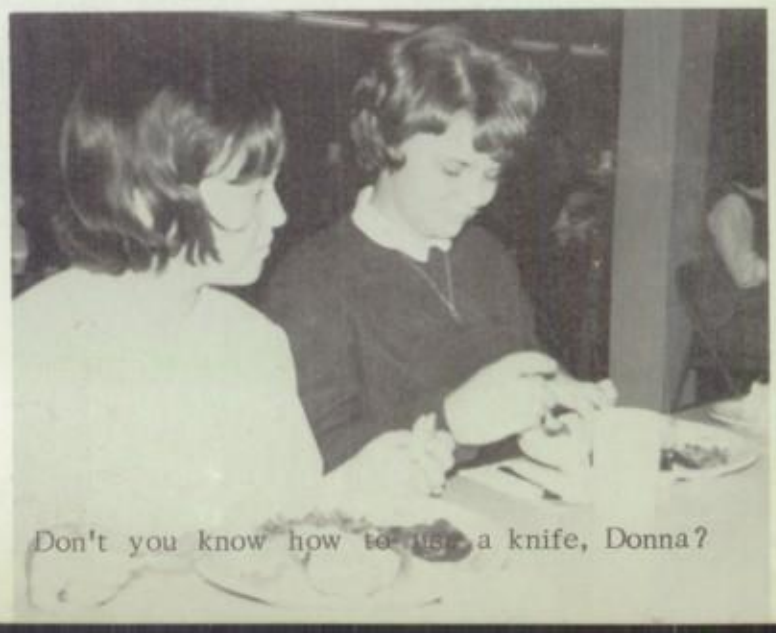
I get a gold star today

Just what you need

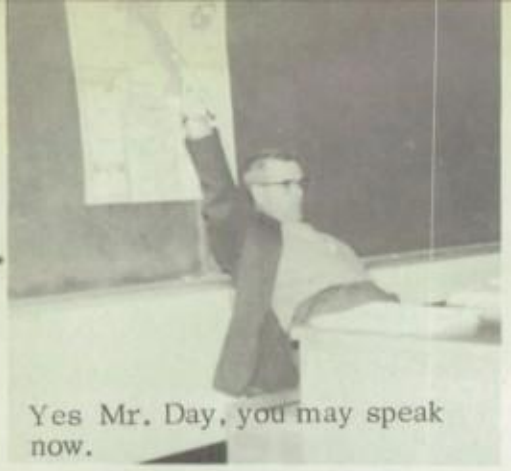
Don't throw the rolls

She bites?

Mess Hall



Don't you know how to use a knife, Donna?



Yes Mr. Day, you may speak now.

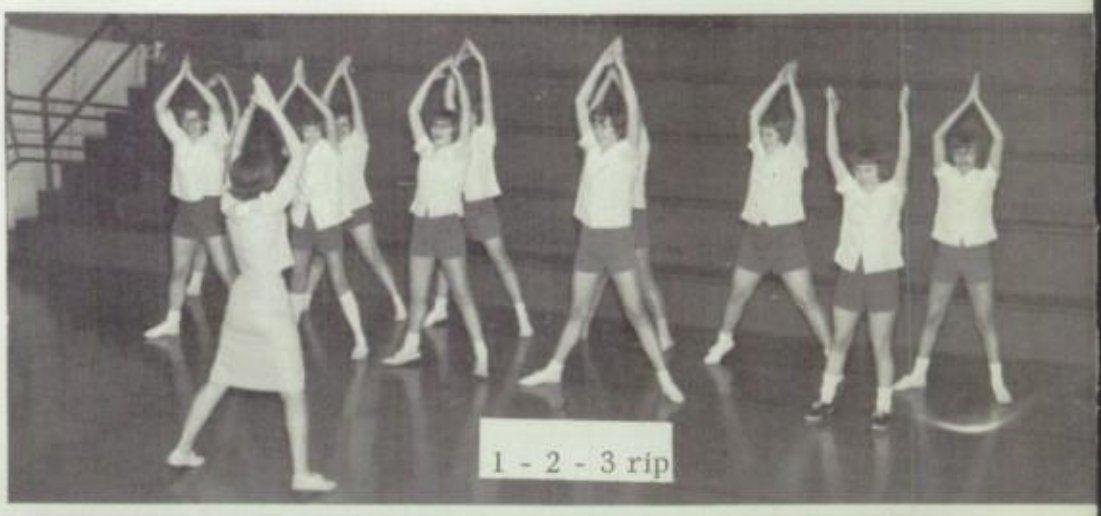
I have got to get these tests graded before next semester

Kunkel, studying? ? ?

Use your own glue

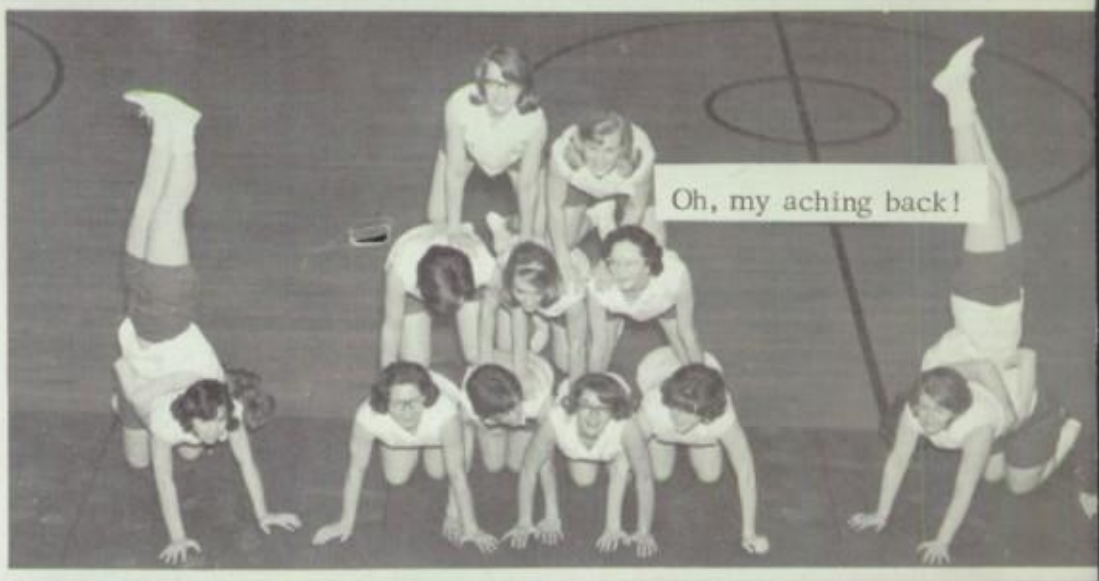
Get ready, get set, go!

Perfect parking



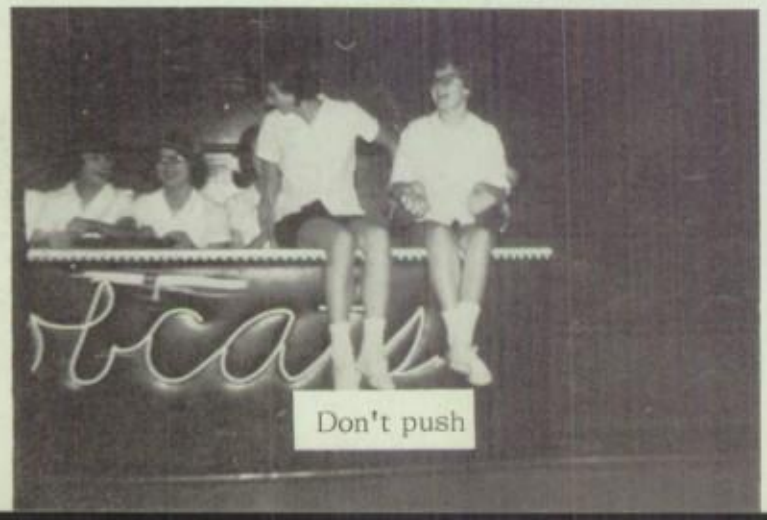
1 - 2 - 3 rip

Don't let her catch me!

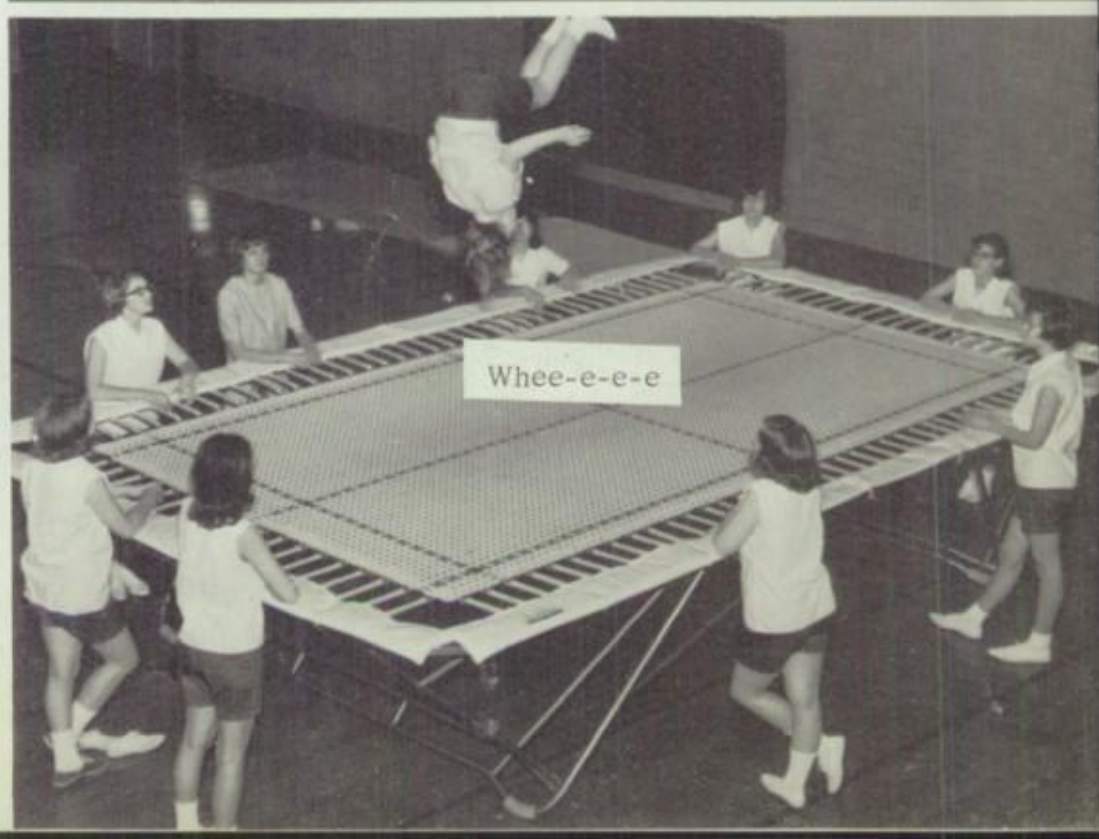


Oh, my aching back!

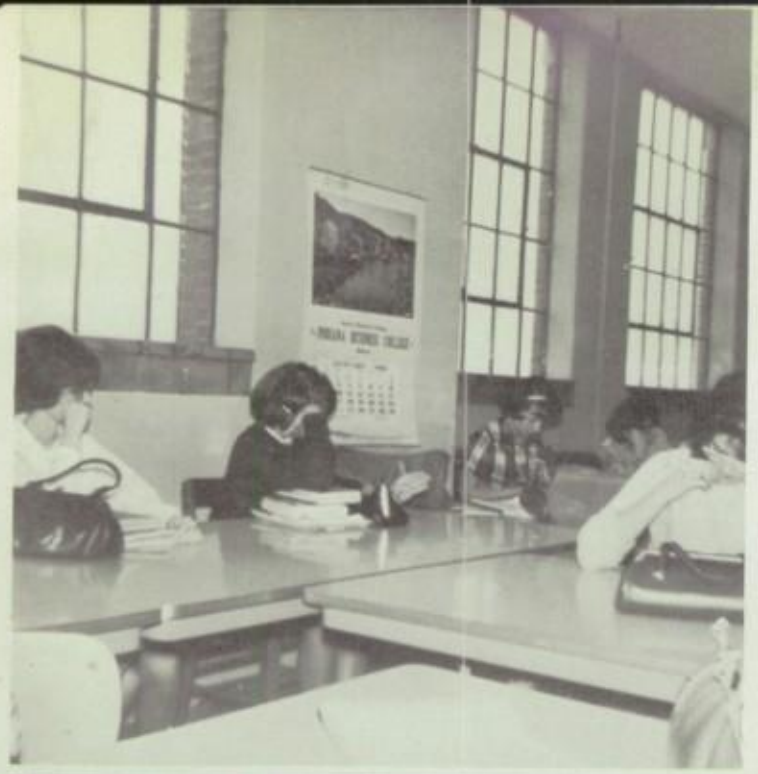
Ringo on the drums



Don't push



Whee-e-e-e



Think!!!!

Do Re Mi

Comfy ?????

Here comes Mrs. Ellis

Mr. McHenry my horn won't blow!

Boy, I'm tired

JUST A NORMAL DAY .....

MARCHING BAND

Band Officers: Richard Redding, Publicity; Virginia Hunt, V-President; Pam Kunkel, Sec.-Treas.; Larry Gehring, President.

BAND STORY

The band this year participated in the NISBOVA contest, State IMEA Contest and the District Band Contest at Columbia City. In addition to playing at all of the home basketball games, a small band played at the pep sessions and the Concert band gave a concert in the Spring. Cooperation and work are certainly the key words in this organization.

JR.-SR. CHORUS

CHORUS STORY

Led by a capable and efficient director, the mixed chorus presented nine spring concerts in the surrounding community churches again this year. In these concerts many special groups performed; thus presenting an inspiring sacred evening of music. In addition to the spring concerts, the chorus presented a Variety Show. Participation in the NISBOVA contest this year was eagerly awaited by about half the students in Chorus. This group of students has proven to be capable of superior musical ability and willing to work for it.

BASS AND SOPRANO

PIANISTS: Lynda Mills and Lynne Brown.

OFFICERS: Patty Fulton, secretary, Dennis Day, vice president, Jon Drabenstott, president, Cheryl Archbold, treasurer.

"I Feel Pretty"

VARIETY SHOW

Anxiety filled the air on a calm April Fool's Day this year. Students were well prepared, the stages were set and the gymnasium was filled with an avid audience waiting to hear the musical variety show, "Sounds of the Century." When twenty-seven groups are competing for first prize, there is sure to be good entertainment in store; and there was. The numbers varied from an old farm in Kentucky to the back-stage dressing room of the theatre. The students chose, prepared and presented their own numbers, so variety was the evening's key word. The pictures shown on these pages are the winners of the evening with the Grand Prize being awarded to "Chim, Chim, Cheree."

STUDENT COUNCIL

Because the Student Council is composed of an outstanding pupil from each high school class, plus representatives from music and athletics, it is a group of young people ready to serve their school by improving student-teacher relations and providing special assembly programs throughout the year. Another project the Council took on this year was the March of Dimes. Seventy feet of dimes were collected, showing that these young people were capable of serving in such an honored capacity.

MARCH OF DIMES

Student Council: Seated -- Virginia Hunt, sponsor, Mr. Wayne Lee; Dennis Day. Standing -- Terry Green, Mick Cupp, Becky Mann, Linda Kunkel.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

This group of girls meet together twice a month for programs usually composed by some of their own members. This organization is interested in helping other people less fortunate than themselves. The Y-Teens accomplished their goals this year by collecting money for Christmas, making tray favors for hospital patients and giving an Easter egg hunt for the grades. These girls exemplify their theme of Christian fellowship.

HI-Y

"To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the school, home, and community, high standards of Christian Character," is the goal of the Lancaster Hi-Y Club. This year they again sponsored the drive for Christmas presents for the needy families in the area and many of the students in the school responded to their drive.

Hi-Y Officers: Sitting- Jon Drabenstott, President; Sam Livingstone, Vice-President; Marty Gilbert, Secretary; Dennis Day, Treasurer. Standing. Richard Redding, Chaplain; Rick Smith, Sergeant-at-Arms; Alan Daugherty, Historian.

What ya hidin' Rita?

Gee I wish my mother would come and get me . . . .

Is it 1 or 2 cups of salt

Everybody ready??

Is that any way to hold your violin?

Junior Miss Indiana of 1901 !

Freeze . . . .

WHAT A DAY!

WILL THEY EVER TAKE OVER?

Friends, Romans, country-men . . .

One to a person . . . . .

Please, Mick, I'd rather do it myself

Every time I turn around, that machine has moved!

New seating arrangements.

What are you eating, Bonnie????

Today's assignment

Christmas party

Afternoon nap???

What a form . . . . .

Now watch it you guys !!

I'll never win ! ! !

Ready . . Aim . . Drop ! !

But, I don't want my picture taken

Yea! a strike

Go away . . . .

Wish I had one of those trophies

Mr. Lee said I could sleep out here . .

M-m-m-m-m-m-

Coke on the rocks

Plaid derby

Three stooges ! !

Your kidding ! !

You rang???

I use Macleans!!

And they said this would be interesting

Einstein Inskeep?????????

A hole in one??

Give me a little kiss???

and then she said . . . . .

How do you make a circle?

Knitting again, Jake?

These boots are made for walking. . . . . .

See, nothing's wrong with my tongue

What have you got in your pouch???

Practice makes perfect. . .

Refreshment table ! ! !

My knees are gapping . . .

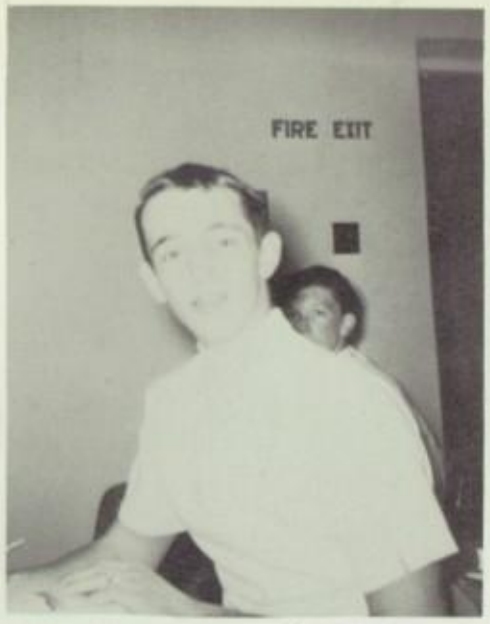
The good guy???

Crazy Ave. . . .

Bang! Bang! she shot me down. . .

Don't bite my finger. . .

Hey, Johnloz, close your mouth.



Doc Hasler ! !

Pepsi generation ! !

Where are my shoes???

Swiping hubcaps???

What are you looking for??

You're on my tow, Jon ! !

Are they normal??

Manicure comes next . . . .

Did you see that?

Run for your life. . .

Oh, I wish this game would start.

Jail birds????

Knobby Knees ! ! !

I won't smile !

Who kicked me?

IN THE MISTY MOONLIGHT

May 14, 1966

Smile--Say Cheese

Best boyfriend and best girlfriend

Our sponsors, Mr. Rose, Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Seidentop had fun too.

Sweet Music, low lights and dreams.

##########''''''!!!!!!!!!!But it was rhythm

Oh, What pretty dresses were there that night

Was it that bad?

Regina says, "I'll show you how it looks on me."

The teachers were not looking this time

Shall we dance?

Something wrong, Kent

That was a beautiful lullaby wasn't it, Karen?

That silent moment.

You just barely made it in the picture, Dru.

Just listening.

Our Prom--"In The Misty Moonlight"

When do we eat?

They were charming waitresses

How about that--------

. . . IT
HAD TO COME TO AN END . . .
